For Immediate Release:

Free Document Shredding in Cambridge Saturday, March 12

Cambridge, MA, February 29, 2016 -- The Cambridge Consumers' Council and the US Postal Service, in collaboration with the Office of Attorney General Maura Healey, the US Postal Inspectors, and the Department of Telecommunications and Cable are offering a free document shredding opportunity Saturday, Mar. 12, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m., in front of Cambridge City Hall, 795 Massachusetts Avenue, rain or shine.

Members of the public can securely dispose of personal and confidential paper documents. Documents will be destroyed on the spot in a highly advanced technical mobile shredding truck and sent for recycling. Limited drop-off parking will be available on Massachusetts Avenue, Bigelow Street, and Inman Street.

Additionally the Cambridge Consumers' Council will be hosting two information sharing events Wednesday, March 9, 11 a.m. – 1 p.m., at the Central Square Post Office, 770 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, and on Thursday, March 10, 11 a.m. – 1 p.m., at the Harvard Square Post Office, 125 Mt. Auburn St., Cambridge.

For more information, please contact the Cambridge Consumers' Council at 617.349.6150 or email consumer@cambridgema.gov.
